Jesse's mom is finally coming to Clearwater Crossing, and he can't wait to see her! But not everyone is excited about her visit. His father is tense, his stepmother is jealous, and his stepsister has turned into a royal brat. Jesse's had enough misery in his life lately. Can't his family give him some peace?

Melanie has never felt more alone. No one is there for her--not Jesse, not her father, not even Peter. There has to be more to life, and if she can't find it in Missouri, maybe it's time to look somewhere else.

When the bad behavior of Nicole's cousin Gail almost costs them both their jobs at Wienerageous, it could be a blessing in disguise--except that Nicole's parents will kill her if she loses the job that's supposed to teach her responsibility. Amazingly, the restaurant's boss is willing to cut the girls a break. There's just one thing Gail has to do . . .
