I know the fear of public speaking most people experience, but most of us don't know how to become comfortable around a large audience. Everyone respond different around large crowds and really don't know why. I am sharing methods that I use to ease my discomfort and adjust to different kinds of response from an audience. When you read this book you will feel more comfortable by learning some things about yourself and why you feel this way. I have talked to Psychologist and Doctors who explain the main reasons why people have a problem expressing themselves and feel comfortable doing so. I hope you will find these methods helpful and share with others. Thank you.
