Discover How Sharing Faith From The Horse Farm Can Change Lives Forever!

About the Horse Farm

The horse farm not only serves as a hub for horse enthusiasts and riders but as a place where faith is shared, and lives are transformed. Nestled in the picturesque countryside, the horse farm provides a serene environment where individuals can connect with nature and deepen their spiritual connection.

Connecting Spirituality and Animals

Horses have been known throughout history for their beauty and grace, but their therapeutic and spiritual qualities are often overlooked. At the horse farm, the bond between humans and horses goes beyond a simple rider-horse relationship. A deep spiritual connection is formed, allowing individuals to experience personal growth and healing.

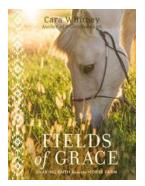

Why Horses?

Horses possess an innate ability to sense emotions and respond to nonverbal cues. Their sensitivity helps them connect with individuals on a deeper level, making them excellent partners in spiritual growth and faith-sharing. Through interactions with horses, individuals can gain valuable insights about themselves and their faith.

The Power of Equine Assisted Therapy

Equine Assisted Therapy (EAT) is a powerful form of therapy that combines horses and traditional therapy techniques to address a wide range of emotional and psychological challenges. This unique approach can also be applied to faithsharing, providing individuals with a safe and non-judgmental space to explore their beliefs and spirituality.

Benefits of Equine Assisted Faith-Sharing

1. Nonverbal communication: Horses can teach individuals the importance of nonverbal communication in faith-sharing. By reading a horse's body language, individuals can understand the impact of their own nonverbal cues when sharing their faith.

 Building trust: Establishing trust is crucial when it comes to faith-sharing.
Horses, as animals that rely on trust for survival, can help individuals develop and strengthen this important virtue.

3. Empathy and active listening: Horses are highly intuitive and respond to the emotions of those around them. Interacting with horses can teach individuals the value of empathy and active listening, key skills in effective faith-sharing.

4. Overcoming fear: Faith-sharing can be intimidating for some individuals. Horses, known for their size, can help individuals confront and overcome their fears, leading to more confident and impactful faith-sharing experiences.

The Role of the Horse Farm Community

The horse farm serves as a supportive community that encourages faith-sharing and personal growth. Through group activities, workshops, and retreats, individuals can connect with like-minded people who share the same passion for horses and spirituality.

Programs and Events

1. Faith-Sharing Circles: These intimate gatherings provide a safe space for individuals to share their faith journey, ask questions, and receive guidance from experienced mentors.

2. Horseback Retreats: Retreats designed to combine the joy of horseback riding with faith-based activities and reflections, allowing individuals to connect with their spirituality in a unique way.

3. Volunteer Opportunities: The horse farm offers various volunteer programs that enable individuals to give back to the community while deepening their faith.

From her horse farm in Nebraska, Cara Whitney--wife of Dan Whitney (aka "Larry the Cable Guy")--shares down-to-earth stories about how ordinary people can share their faith in extraordinary ways.

In the midst of uncertain and sometimes frightening times, sharing God's love with others gives us hope and purpose. With her humorous and often touching stories--many featuring horses, cows, and rascally dogs--Cara Whitney delightfully reminds us that it's always a good time to share the love of Jesus with your neighbor.

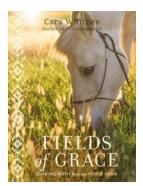

In Fields of Grace, Cara passes on lessons from her amazing animal teachers, such as . . .

- What a barnyard horse brawl shows us about how God uses us in our weaknesses
- How caring for baby calves teaches us the value of letting go
- Why a carriage-pulling pack horse motivates us to be our best selves
- How a dance class inspires us to embrace our identity in Christ
- What a floppy-eared dog tells us about loving our neighbor

With Scripture verses, beautiful photography from the American heartland, and a ribbon marker for finding your place, Fields of Grace is a gorgeous gift for:

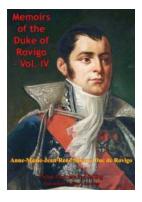

- Readers of Cara's previous book, Unbridled Faith
- Fans of Larry the Cable Guy
- Anyone fascinated by the "simpler life" of farming in rural America
- Animal lovers and photography lovers
- Spiritual seekers interested in a gentle approach to learning more about God

These charming yet powerful stories encourage us to care for others as we grow in our own spiritual journeys. No matter what times we live in, the love of Christ can transform lives--and help each of us to draw closer to Him.
