

Discover How to Win Big in Horse Racing Betting - Got The Horse Right Here!

The 3 main Horse Racing wager types

Win	Place	Each way
The most popular bet. A bet made on a single horse to finish first, also known as betting "on the nose".	Making a bet the horse will either come first, second or third (as long as there are 8 or more horses running in the race).	This is a combination of a "win" and a "place" bet. $10 each way means a $10 bet on a win, and a $10 bet on a place, $10 both ways making a total bet of $20.

The infographic features a background illustration of a horse race. In the foreground, a brown horse with a jockey in yellow and green silks is running. Behind it, the silhouettes of two other horses and jockeys are visible against a bright sun setting over a dark blue track. The text is presented in white boxes with black outlines.

Burned out by working the baseball beat for years, in the summer of 1922 Damon Runyon was looking for a new sport to cover for The New York American as a change of pace. Having pilloried golf just a few years before, he went to Saratoga that August to sample horse racing and found that “There, right in front of him, were so many of the characters he so loved from his time covering the comings and goings of the Manhattan night crowd.” This was just the tonic Runyon needed to emerge from his malaise. Runyon didn’t just cover the great races and which horse won: he would get to the track days before and roam along the backstretch, speaking with the trainers, the gamblers, the rich owners, and the wise guys, many of which became model characters in his fiction and in the musical Guys and Dolls. This book collects the best of Runyon’s horse racing columns to 1936, when he moved on to other beats.
