Sir Donald Bradman, the epitome of cricketing greatness, was undoubtedly the finest batsman to have ever graced the game. With an astonishing batting average of 99.94, Bradman achieved numerous records that remain unbroken to this day. His unmatched concentration, impeccable technique, and ability to score runs consistently make him an immortal in the world of cricket.

2. Shane Warne - The Spin Wizard:

Shane Warne, a master of spin bowling, mesmerized fans and pundits alike with his remarkable ability to turn the ball, deceive batsmen, and take wickets at crucial moments. His famous "Ball of the Century" delivered to a bemused Mike Gatting in 1993 remains one of the most iconic moments in cricket history. As the highest wicket-taker among Australian bowlers, Warne stands tall as one of the all-time greats in the sport.

3. Ricky Ponting - The Tenacious Leader:

Ricky Ponting, a fierce competitor and outstanding leader, was one of the most successful captains in cricket history. His aggressive batting style, exceptional fielding skills, and tactical astuteness made him a force to be reckoned with on the cricket field. Ponting led the Australian team to various triumphs, including two World Cup victories, solidifying his position as one of Australia's cricketing immortals.

4. Allan Border - The Resilient Rock:

Allan Border, a stoic left-handed batsman, held the Australian cricket team together during tumultuous times. He played a crucial role in reviving Australian cricket, transforming them from underdogs to a dominant force. Border's relentless determination and high-level performance earned him the respect of his teammates and opponents, making him an integral part of Australia's cricketing folklore.

5. Glenn McGrath - The McGrathinator:

Glenn McGrath, a pace bowler with pinpoint accuracy, left batsmen trembling with his relentless line and length. His ability to extract bounce and swing from the pitch troubled even the best batsmen in the world. McGrath's exceptional control, consistency, and ability to take crucial wickets at crucial times established him as one of the greatest fast bowlers of all time and an immortal of Australian cricket.

The Immortals of Australian Cricket have not only entertained the world with their extraordinary skills but have also inspired generations of cricketers to strive for greatness. Sir Donald Bradman, Shane Warne, Ricky Ponting, Allan Border, and Glenn McGrath have defied all odds, transcended boundaries, and etched their names in the annals of cricketing history. We salute these legends for their contributions to the game and celebrate their immortal status in Australian cricket.

« Personne ne peut savoir quel plaisir on éprouve à naviguer seul en toute liberté sur les océans immenses, à moins d'en avoir l'expérience. »

En 1895, Joshua Slocum part de Boston avec le voilier qu'il a restauré avec ardeur plusieurs années durant. Lui qui a déjà tant navigué veut retrouver le large, seul cette fois.

Trois ans plus tard, c'est la fin d'une « croisière » de quarante-six mille milles. Slocum jette l'ancre dans le port de Newport : il a réalisé le premier tour du monde en solitaire. Un exploit hors du commun à l'époque et encore légendaire aujourd'hui.

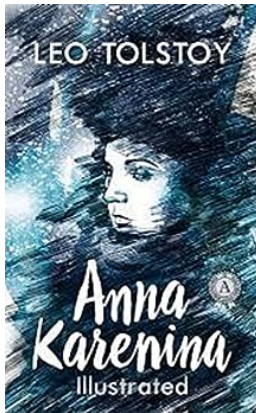

Pour des générations de marins du monde entier, Slocum reste un modèle par sa détermination et sa présence d'esprit comme par son art d'affronter la solitude. Son attitude indéfectiblement positive est peut-être le secret de l'engouement toujours aussi vif suscité par ses aventures, dont le récit est devenu un classique incontournable de la littérature maritime.
