A hero never came home from the war. Will his nephew's painstaking twenty-year search finally offer the family closure?

Phil Rosenkrantz never met his uncle. All he knew was that the fearless 82nd Airborne Paratrooper was marked MIA, and seventy-three years later he still didn't know the brave man's history... or where his remains lay. But his two-decade quest to bring his relative's sacrifice to light would reveal startling epistles, detailed sketches, and the vivid humor of a man confronting a bitter fight for freedom.

Letters From Uncle Dave: The 73-year Journey to Find a Missing-In-Action World War II Paratrooper is a meticulous account of Army Staff Sergeant David "Rosie" Rosenkrantz's life and the unraveling of the mystery of his death. Featuring forty-nine surviving missives reprinted in the book, along with newspaper articles, military research sources, and interviews Phil conducted across the globe, you'll gain unique insights into not just an intensely personal pursuit, but the unfolding of a horrendous global conflict. As one man's mission to locate his uncle's remains and bring them home comes to a close, you'll be moved by the story of a humble paratrooper who gave everything in the name of liberty.
