Understanding the Uncivilized Enemy

The term "uncivilized enemy" refers to individuals or groups who engage in criminal activities with little regard for the well-being of others. These enemies may exploit vulnerabilities, displaying aggression, violence, or intimidation to achieve their objectives.

The Key to Effective Fence and Defence

Our manual focuses on a balanced approach encompassing both fence techniques and defense tactics. "Fence" refers to maintaining a safe distance from potential threats while assessing the situation. This crucial skill helps prevent surprises and grants you valuable time to react.

Mastering Essential Fence Techniques

Within the Manual of Fence and Defense, you will find a detailed breakdown of various fence techniques. These include practitioner stances, body language, verbal cues, and threat assessment strategies. By understanding and implementing these techniques, you can establish a defensive perimeter and minimize the risk of physical altercations.

Defense Tactics for Various Scenarios

Alongside the fence techniques, this manual equips you with a range of practical defense tactics to counter potential threats. From basic techniques to advanced maneuvers, you will learn how to defend against unarmed attacks, knife assaults, surprise attacks, and even multiple assailants.

Become a Confident Protector

The Manual of Fence and Defense aims to instill confidence within its readers. By mastering the techniques and tactics outlined, you will gain the assurance necessary to navigate through potentially dangerous situations unscathed.

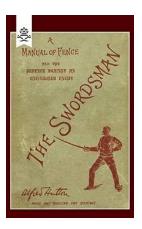

Empower Yourself with Knowledge

Knowledge is power, especially when it comes to your personal safety. Our manual offers crystal-clear instructions, complemented by illustrations, to ensure an easy and effective learning experience. Regardless of your age, gender, or physical abilities, this guide empowers you to proactively protect yourself.

Written by an expert fence - whose previous titles include 'Cold Steel' and 'Fixed Bayonets' this is an illustrated late 19th century manual of fencing tactics designed to rescue the noble art of swordsmanship that the author considers has been debased, presumably by the arrival of increasingly sophisticated firearms and artillery. Full of diagrams illustrating correct fencing positions, this book will be of interest to anyone fascinated by fencing and bladed weapon tactics.
