

Discover the Untold Story of Vietnam Walking Wounded Chris Lynch

Chris Lynch, a name not widely known, yet his journey represents the harrowing experiences of many soldiers who fought in the Vietnam War. In this article, we delve into the life of Chris Lynch, the walking wounded hero, and shed light on the untold stories of bravery, resilience, and sacrifice on the battlefield.

The Early Years

Chris Lynch was born and raised in a small town in the heartland of America. Like many young men of his generation, he dreamed of serving his country and enlisted in the military as soon as he turned 18. Little did he know that this decision would shape his life in unimaginable ways.

Deployed to Vietnam

In 1968, at the age of 19, Chris was deployed to Vietnam as part of a US Army infantry unit. He was unprepared for the brutal realities of war that awaited him in Southeast Asia. From the moment he set foot on Vietnamese soil, Chris was thrust into the chaos of battle, facing constant danger and witnessing the horrors of war firsthand.

Morris, Rudi, Ivan, and Beck were best friends. So when one of them was drafted into the Vietnam War, the others signed up, too. They promised to watch out for one another. They pledged to come home together.

Now, that pledge has been broken. One of the four has been killed in action. And the remaining three are the only men alive who know the awful truth about their friend's death.

Each is left to deal with their secret in his own way. One of them will accompany his friend's body home to Boston. One of them will defy orders in an act of protest. And one of them will decide it's up to him to single-handedly win the war.

In the end, Vietnam may claim more than their lives. As the war grinds on, their very souls are at stake. And their shattered friendship will prove either their salvation... or their ruin.
