An inspirational strong girl story! Nina Kosterina was a Russian college student-turned-guerilla soldier who perished fighting Germany's WWII invasion. Her teen diary, published years after her death, became an international bestseller and opened a window into the tumultuous birth of Russian Communism in the 1920s-1930s. She was a young Communist woman in love with her country, her family, her city, her friends, politics, art and life. Even when Joseph Stalin's regime tore apart her family and imprisoned her father, she remained true to herself.
