I don't want to give away any of what this book is about because if you already know anything it won't be as fun to read. I think the title is a good enough hint. It's got many stories to it and it's a real adventure. One of the best parts about this book and why you may like it is because I'm not a pro or anything I'm just a guy who loved surfing like every surfer on the planet. It's a total adventure. It's laugh out loud funny, spooky and strange at times, touches on mental illness, lots of surf action, some coming of age moment, and all around fun. I don't think you will be disappointed If you decide to purchase this book. Enjoy!
