Chaotically Organized -7 Short Stories-

- My first bat
- I love you too
- The unexpected freedom
- Encounter with the witch
- First one is always special
- Touch the sky with glory
- Start over

Chaotically organized is a series of incidents from the life of the author. From his initial love for cricket to his first love. The encounters he had in life while growing up and how he learnt to handle failures the hard way. It touches those common points that everyone can relate to, and beautifully describes the common incidents of his life with intricate details. It talk about celebrating the little joys of life and how one can find purpose without even looking for it.

The author tried his hand at literally everything he liked in his life. Whether it was about playing cricket professionally, getting into the Indian defense forces, becoming an actor, starting his own business or writing professionally. His extremist nature also gave him success in these fields, but the only problem was, he easily got bored of one thing and then moved on to the other. At the outset, he seems like a chaotic person who has nothing in order, but only when will know him more, you will realize that he is indeed chaotically organized. He has described the incidents from his life and what he learnt from each of them.
