This work is the product of seven years' research based on historical documents that sets out to prove the authenticity and antiquity of the "Gospel of the Essenes," which for 90 years has been considered by theologians a forgery, as the original manuscripts were lost.

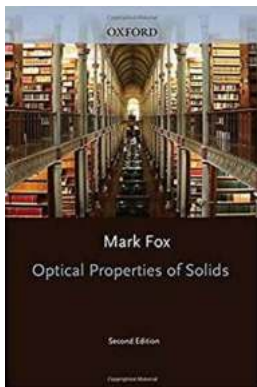

Professors from the US have spent several months studying this study, concluding that this work demonstrates the authenticity of the Essenes' gospel, or that the New Testament was not written by several disciples of Jesus, but came from a Roman source.

Evidence is presented to show the "Gospel of the Essenes" to be the predecessor of the New Testament and thus about 2000 years old. The Essene Prophet introduced the model of a brotherhood in that era and viewed the concept of this brotherhood on a universal scale as the only way to create lasting peace in the world.
