I've just met the perfect guy...pity he's a figment of my imagination.

What happens when your dreams are better than reality?

Ash has been dreaming about Wyn, he's different from anyone she's ever met before. He's been trying to convince her that he's real and he needs her help. It's like something out of a fairytale and we all know fairy tales aren't true...right?

The Alora Chronicles is a clean fantasy romance story collection.

"The storyline has just the right amount of laughs (genuinely out loud!) mixed with believable drama and hints in the plot as to future possibilities. I love that this story concludes in its own right. It leaves you feeling satisfied with the ending but also still looking forward to the next book in the Chronicles. It is very exciting to have a new, good author coming on the scene!" – M.McNab

"I absolutely loved it!! Great character development of the main characters and awesome setting description. It was a pleasure to read and I'm REALLY looking forward to the next one!" – N. Johnston

"I really couldn't contain my excitement as I read through your amazing book. I hope they will make a movie out of it. I've really wanted to become a novelist for a long time, and your book has inspired me more, I hope this book will inspire others just as has done so with me. I recommend this book particularly to anyone who is interested in novels about fantasy and romance." – T. McKenzie.
