With the support and encouragement of her loved ones, Suzanne embarked on her first scuba diving adventure. The moment she submerged underwater, a sense of freedom and joy washed over her. The weightlessness and tranquility of the underwater realm instantly captivated her.

The Birth of Dive Abled

Inspired by her newfound passion, Suzanne founded Dive Abled, an organization dedicated to promoting inclusive diving experiences for individuals with disabilities. Through Dive Abled, Suzanne aims to break down barriers and prove that anyone, regardless of physical constraints, can appreciate the awe-inspiring beauty of the underwater world.

By providing specialized training and adaptive equipment, Dive Abled makes scuba diving accessible to individuals with various disabilities. Suzanne's unwavering determination and commitment to empowering others have helped numerous individuals experience the transformative power of scuba diving.

Overcoming Challenges, Changing Lives

Suzanne's personal journey of overcoming challenges and embracing her passion has profoundly impacted the lives of many. Dive Abled participants have reported increased self-confidence, improved mental health, and a renewed sense of purpose.

Through her collaborative efforts with medical professionals, Suzanne has also shown that scuba diving can have therapeutic benefits for individuals with physical disabilities. The buoyancy of the water facilitates movement and reduces the strain on joints, providing individuals with a unique opportunity to engage in physical activities that may otherwise be challenging.

If you ask Leo Morales, nothing is impossible if you set your mind to it. And he should know. After he lost his right leg to cancer, Leo struggled with life. But he decided his disability would not define him. When friends suggested scuba diving as part of his physical therapy, he was hooked. He quickly progressed from diver to dive instructor and technical diver. Leo has set two world records as a disabled diver, one for depth and one for distance underwater, and tirelessly travels to share his message that disabilities are only in the mind.
