Legends That Haunt the Hallowed Halls

Birchtree Hall is not only renowned for its magical melodies but also for the whispers of ancient legends that echo within its heart. One such tale revolves around the enigmatic "Bard's Harp," a mystical artifact said to possess the power to awaken dormant souls and heal wounded spirits. According to legend, this golden harp is kept hidden within the depths of Birchtree Hall, awaiting a chosen bard to unveil its secrets.

Another intriguing legend speaks of a bard who allegedly composed a melody so hauntingly beautiful that it resonated with the spirits of the forest. It is said that those who venture deep into the woods surrounding Birchtree Hall might catch a faint echo of this enchanting composition, forever etched in the memory of those fortunate enough to hear it.

The Shadowy Secrets Lurking Within

Beyond the harmonious façade of Birchtree Hall lies a world seeped in mystery and secrets. The bards have long been whispered to possess an ancient knowledge, hidden within their spellbinding compositions. Some say that within the lyrics and melodies lies a cryptic code, a gateway to untold wisdom and magical discoveries.

While some believe that the bards have harnessed the power of music to communicate with other realms, others claim that a hidden underground chamber known only to a select few holds ancient scrolls containing the lost tales of Birchtree Hall. These secretive texts are said to unveil the true purpose and destiny of the bards, as well as their connection to the mystical world that lies beyond.

Neala Moran knew that moving to Ireland would change her life...but she never imagined this.

From the moment she arrives, strange things start to happen - things she cannot explain.

Why did her unusual birthmark - the pale one in the shape of a leaf - start hurting the moment she touched that tree? How is a gigantic horse with glowing yellow eyes materialising from the ocean? And who is the mysterious visitor who speaks to her in her dreams calling her 'Neala Stormbringer?' Neala also discovers a long held family secret - she is a Bard. Part-human, part-Faerie - ancient magic flows in her blood and she now must learn to control her elemental powers to discover the meaning behind her affinity with thunderstorms.

Because danger is coming...a threat that no one is prepared for. The Otherworld - home of the Fae and other magical creatures - has been sealed off for centuries by a magical barrier known as 'The Gate.' But it will not hold forever...

The Guardians are being summoned. Their purpose is to protect.

Will Neala risk everything to save the ones she loves? Or will she turn her back on her destiny?
