With Finn and Eric hiding far from the wrath of the powerful sorceress Queen Venera, her rage turns towards an old enemy instead, the Elves. King Drer now possesses one of the Straize Gem stones and Venera the other, so war between the races looks inevitable. The twins must decide whether they can do something to prevent it and in the process take back what is rightfully theirs before either King Drer or Queen Venera gains possession of both Gem stones and becomes unstoppable.

Can two teenage boys and their small group of protectors really take on the full might of two armies and stop the biggest war the land of Knor'kan has seen in centuries?
