Training for the Ultimate Test

Before participating in "The Run Of The Bull," it's essential to prepare physically and mentally for the challenge that lies ahead. Many individuals train tirelessly, focusing on strength, speed, and agility. Additionally, familiarizing oneself with the route, understanding the behavior of the bulls, and receiving guidance from experienced runners are crucial steps in surviving this electrifying adventure.

The Dangers Amidst the Excitement

Running alongside a herd of powerful bulls is not for the faint-hearted. Injuries abound, with runners occasionally getting trampled or injured by the charging animals. The streets become a battleground where bravery meets danger, and split-second decisions can mean the difference between life and injury. While injuries are common, safety measures are in place to minimize risks and ensure that participants can experience the thrill without compromising their well-being.

The Rush of Emotions

Imagine the moment of truth when the bulls are released, and you find yourself running for your life. Fear, excitement, and exhilaration all weave together, creating an indescribable cocktail of emotions. In that instant, everything else fades away, and the only goal is to keep moving forward, surpassing your own limits with newfound determination. It is an exhilarating and life-altering moment that participants carry with them forever.

Embracing Spanish Culture

The Running of the Bulls is more than just a daring adventure. It is a celebration of Spanish culture and tradition. The festival of San Fermin, held annually in Pamplona, brings together locals and tourists to experience an explosion of color, music, dance, and joy. Beyond the adrenaline-filled race, take the time to immerse yourself in the rich traditions of Spain, savor delicious local cuisine, and enjoy the lively festivities that accompany "The Run Of The Bull".

The Aftermath – A Reflection

Once the race is over, the air is filled with a sense of accomplishment and relief. Surviving "The Run Of The Bull" leaves you with memories that last a lifetime. Reflecting on the experience, many participants describe a newfound appreciation for life, an understanding of their own courage, and a deeper connection to the vibrant spirit of Spain.

"The Run Of The Bull" is more than just a test of endurance; it is an incredible adventure that ignites the flame of bravery within all who dare to participate. It is a powerful reminder of the indomitable human spirit, pushing the boundaries of fear to embrace a moment that captivates the world. So, are you ready to chase your dreams and conquer your fears in the midst of a thrilling stampede? Join us in Pamplona, and experience "The Run Of The Bull" – an unforgettable escapade that will leave you breathless!

“Want a front-row seat to Virginia Tech’s rise as a college football power? Chris Colston takes you there, with vivid, behind-the-scenes stories and anecdotes about the Hokies’ decades-long evolution. There isn’t a more definitive and comprehensive history of Virginia Tech’s transformation from football nomad to national title contender under Frank Beamer than this.”—Andy Bitter, The Athletic.

Colston’s eight-volume series GO TECH GO: The Inside Story Behind the Rise of Virginia Tech Football is designed for easy reading—perfect for your favorite mobile device. In Volume Three, The Run of the Bull (1985-86), Colston shares inside stories he witnessed first-hand as editor of the Hokie Huddler. Told with entertaining, easy-to-read anecdotes, he reveals the events that led to coach Bill Dooley’s departure—and how his players rallied around him to win the university’s first football bowl game in thrilling, last-second fashion.

“Riveting stuff,” says Hall of Fame broadcaster Bill Roth. “Reads like a well-written novel. Essential for all Hokies, old and new.”

“The Inside Story Behind the Rise of Virginia Tech Football is not a misnomer,” says Hall of Fame sportswriter David Teel. “Chris attended Tech, cheered for Tech, absorbed Tech’s history, worked at Tech, and most essential, earned the trust of those who authored the program’s ascension, including Frank Beamer.”

CHRIS COLSTON worked in the Virginia Tech Athletics Department from 1985-96 as editor of The Hokie Huddler and went on to cover the MLB, NFL, and NBA as an award-winning reporter for Sports Weekly and USA TODAY. Says TechSideline.com Founder Will Stewart, “Chris Colston is the most authoritative voice on the modern era of Virginia Tech football. ...if you want to learn about Virginia Tech football, he’s the guy. I personally learned a ton from reading his stuff over the years. Sit back and enjoy Go Tech Go from one of the most revered writers about Hokie sports.”
