A young woman with her head in the clouds...

A mother with expectations...

A farmer with a secret...

Anna Lawrence is a free-spirited young woman who spends every spare minute with her head in a book, dreaming of meeting a handsome man to marry and settle down with.

Her mother, Evelyn, tells her that she has her head in the clouds and would be better suited learning the trade of a teacher or nurse or something practical since a plain girl, such as she is, will likely never find a man to marry her.

Brushing her mother's words aside, Anna swaps her stories for the local newspaper. There, she sees an advertisement from farmer Booth Sanderson.

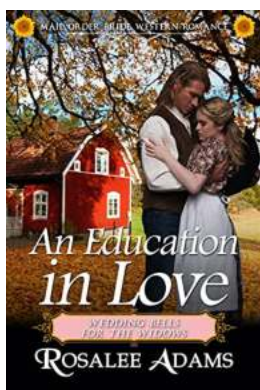

Not thinking things through, Anna sets off for Colorado to marry the man of her dreams... but Booth holds a secret close to his heart, one that could damage Anna's hopes of a perfect life forever...
