The Origins of Steel Scars Red Queen

Steel Scars Red Queen is the brainchild of the talented author, Victoria Aveyard. The series takes place in a dystopian world divided by blood – the Silver-blooded elite who possess extraordinary powers and the Red-blooded commoners who are subjugated and deemed ordinary. Caught in the midst of a fierce power struggle, a young Red girl named Mare Barrow finds herself inadvertently thrust into a dangerous game that will challenge her perception of the world she knows.

Unveiling the Characters

One of the most remarkable aspects of Steel Scars Red Queen is its diverse array of characters, each with their own intricacies and motivations. Meet Mare Barrow, the fierce and courageous protagonist who defies all odds and challenges the oppressive system she was born into. Alongside Mare, you will encounter a host of unforgettable characters like Cal, the Silver prince with a conflicted heart, and Maven, the enigmatic prince who conceals more than meets the eye. Prepare to be emotionally invested in their journeys as they navigate through a web of deception, romance, and loyalty.
