The Battle of Dong Tien

Perhaps the most significant moment in the division's history was the Battle of Dong Tien. This intense conflict took place in Mekong Delta from May 20 to August 30, 1967. The 9th Infantry Division, along with the support of other units, engaged in a relentless effort to eliminate Viet Cong presence in the region. Despite facing numerous challenges, their determination and tactical prowess led to a decisive victory.

The Tet Offensive

The Tet Offensive of 1968 was another critical event in which the 9th Infantry Division played a major role. This large-scale surprise attack by the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces pushed the division to its limits. However, their resilience and adaptability allowed them to quickly regain control and achieve significant success.

Awards and Recognitions

The valiant efforts of the 9th Infantry Division did not go unnoticed. The division received several awards and recognitions for its outstanding performance in Vietnam. These included four Presidential Unit Citations, three Valorous Unit Awards, and dozens of individual honors for soldiers who displayed exceptional bravery and heroism.

Aftermath and Legacy

The 9th Infantry Division completed its tour in Vietnam on December 6, 1970, and returned to the United States to be deactivated. The division left a lasting legacy, not just in terms of military accomplishments but also in the memories and experiences of those who served.

Although the war in Vietnam was controversial, the sacrifices and bravery of the 9th Infantry Division remain a testament to their unwavering commitment to their country. Their untold stories are a reminder of the countless individuals who put their lives on the line and left a profound impact on history.

“This outstanding book is a must read for those trying to understand the Vietnam War and its guerrilla warfare tactics”—from the author of Losing Vietnam (Post Library).

Of all the military assignments in Vietnam, perhaps none was more challenging than the defense of the Mekong River Delta region. Operating deep within the Viet Cong-controlled Delta, the 9th Infantry Division of the U.S. Army was charged with protecting the area and its population against Communist insurgents and ensuring the success of the South Vietnamese government’s pacification program. Faced with unrelenting physical hardships, a tenacious enemy, and the region’s rugged terrain, the 9th Division established strategies and quantifiable goals for completing their mission, effectively writing a blueprint for combating guerilla warfare that influenced army tacticians for decades to come.

In The 9th Infantry Division in Vietnam, Ira A. Hunt Jr. details the innovative strategies of the 9th Division in their fight to overcome the Viet Cong. Based on Hunt’s experience as colonel and division chief of staff, the volume documents how the 9th Division’s combat effectiveness peaked in 1969. A wealth of illustrative material, including photos, maps, charts, and tables, deepens understanding of the region's hazardous environment and clarifies the circumstances of the division's failures and successes.

A welcome addition to scholarship on the Vietnam War, The 9th Infantry Division in Vietnam will find an audience with enthusiasts and scholars of military history.

“General Hunt set about proving that the claims of the 9th Infantry Division's brilliant performance in Vietnam were founded on fact. He succeeded and far more.”—Jack N. Merritt, General, U.S. Army, Retired
