Nurse Darling Jones travels to the town of High Valley, Montana eager to leave the horrors of the American Civil War behind her. She hopes to start a new life, one that may include a husband and a family of her own.

After her arrival in town, she is asked to help the local doctor, Brent McClain, with his medical duties. She finds herself attracted to his handsome good looks, but is deterred by his conceited, arrogant, egotistical attitude towards women and their capabilities.

Darla and Brent are returning to town after dealing with a difficult homestead birth when they are set upon by outlaws. Brent is shot, and Darla uses her skills and knowledge to ensure that he survives.

Will their time alone together allow them to admit to their growing feelings for one another?

Can Brent finally escape his tormented past and allow himself to finally settle down in High Valley?

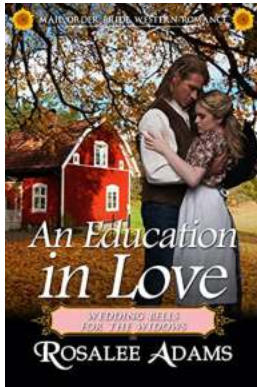

Will Darla manage to see past Brent's misogynistic ways and let him capture her heart?
