Praise for Trafalgar:

'Trafalgar was not only a great sea battle, it saved Britain from invasion by Napoleon. That is why this book, which rattles along excitingly, gave me fresh appetite for the subject. It sets Nelson's victory in that context – the risks of 1940 were just as grave in 1805 ...' - Peter Lewis, Daily Mail

'This gripping book tells the story of Britain's legendary naval victory on October 21, 1805 in which the national hero, Admiral Lord Nelson, was killed by a French sharpshooter ... This book is replete with fascinating details' - Anthony Looch, Glasgow Evening Times

'You can almost smell the whiff of gunsmoke and feel the sweat on both sides as the battle begins. This is history with a page-turning quality' - Good Book Guide
