"Upon reaching land, the crew scattered, including Narraway's men. At that time, I had willed myself to believe that it was over, though nothing had been concluded.

It was not until the first body washed up on shore, three months prior, that I knew more than just the nagging suspicions that this was not over, would never rest."

With the members of Charlotte's former crew being stalked like prey, Kitrina Harvey can no longer ignore the feud she resolved to let sink to the bottom of the ocean. Armed only with the pistols that signify her captainship, and the debilitating weight of her responsibility, Kit must now become the hunter; the hunter of the relic, and the hunter of Captain Robert Narraway.
