

Unbelievable Journey: 6000 Miles in Months Aboard a Borrowed 26-Foot Boat on America's Inland Waterways

Imagine embarking on an epic adventure, cruising 6000 miles across the vast and majestic American inland waterways. Picture yourself sailing aboard a borrowed 26-foot boat, discovering hidden gems, and experiencing awe-inspiring landscapes. This article documents an extraordinary journey of a lifetime and the incredible experiences of the fearless adventurers who dared to embark on this extraordinary expedition.

Setting Sail

The journey began on a crisp morning in April, just as the sun's first rays pierced through the morning mist. Our intrepid adventurers eagerly boarded the borrowed boat, feeling a mix of excitement and anticipation for the challenging months ahead.

The Wonders of America's Inland Waterways

As the boat gently traversed the intricate network of rivers, canals, and interconnected lakes, the adventurers were treated to an astonishing display of natural beauty. From the breathtaking landscapes of the Mississippi River to the serene tranquility of the Great Lakes, every mile revealed new wonders.

Encountering Wildlife

The journey was not only about magnificent landscapes but also about encountering America's diverse wildlife. Bald eagles soaring overhead, playful dolphins swimming alongside the boat, and curious turtles peeking above the water's surface were just a few of the remarkable encounters our adventurers experienced.

Braving the Elements

Throughout their journey, our adventurers faced many challenges, braving unpredictable weather conditions and navigating treacherous stretches of water. From sudden storms to strong currents, their determination and resourcefulness were constantly put to the test. But their unwavering spirit led them forward, overcoming every obstacle in their path.

Discovering Hidden Gems

One of the most astonishing aspects of this journey was the opportunity to stumble upon hidden gems along the way. Quaint riverside towns, picturesque marinas, and secluded coves offered a glimpse into the heart and soul of America's inland waterways. The adventurers were welcomed with open arms, immersing themselves in local cultures and forging lifelong connections.

Over 500 colour photographs in Derrick Baan's travelogue of his 6000 mile voyage through the inland waters of North America in a borrowed 26' boat. A dream that was over thirty years in the making is no longer on the bucket list. Australian author Derrick Baan first read about America's Great Loop in a boating magazine before he was thirty years old.. In the subsequent thirty plus years he bought books and charts to research and plan the voyage. This book chronicles the execution of that dream and how it became more amazing and memorable than he could ever have imagined.
