She's recovering from being left at the altar. He's being threatened by his devious outlaw brother after his father left him sole beneficiary to their ranch. When fate brings them together, can they find a way to let love back into their hearts...

Penny Russell is distraught. She's spent the last few weeks shedding copious amounts of tears over a scoundrel — her husband-to-be — who so cruelly deserted her at the altar.

Determined not to spare another ounce of pity on such a heartless swine, Penny travels to Virginia City, Nevada to become Harlan Meadows, mail-order bride — but this time she's sworn off love, this marriage will be one of convenience, nothing more. Love simply gets in the way of a good business deal...

Rancher Harlan Meadows has recently inherited the family ranch. But there's a problem. His reckless older brother, who rides with the Boniface Outlaw Gang, has been omitted from the will, and he is none too pleased, to say the least.

He decides he will get what he perceives is rightfully his — by any means possible.

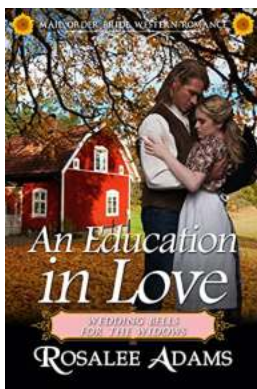

When Penny's life is put in jeopardy, can Harlan find a way to rescue her from his evil brother's clutches and reclaim all that his father would have wanted for him?
