The Mountain Meadows Massacre: A Gripping Tragedy

The Mountain Meadows Massacre ranks among the darkest and bloodiest episodes of the 19th century. This heart-wrenching tragedy unfolded on September 11, 1857, when a group of emigrants journeying to California passed through southern Utah. Little did they know that their fateful encounter with a local militia, aided by Native American tribes, would result in a horrific massacre that claimed the lives of approximately 120 men, women, and children.
