This is a novella length account of my time living in a Thai boxing Gym in Phuket.

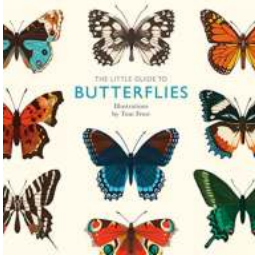

From the gym apartment with the fist sized dent in the bathroom door, to the fight night where boys as young as nine fought for money and honour. Twice a day I would try to absorb and learn as much as I could about the fighting art of Thai boxing whilst making the most of the weekends in Patong.

Please be advised there is moderate swearing and several details of sexual encounters within which will likely disturb and offend those with a more delicate disposition.
