It's more fun, more adventure, and a whole lot more mystery as readers discover what happened to Cade in the final book in The Silver Spurs Series.

A marriage proposal goes awry when a body is discovered at the side of the highway by the would-be groom's minister step-sister. Is the body really that of Cade O'Hara who supposedly died at the hands of his wife and mistresses? If it is Cade, then how did Cade survive being strangled, thrown out a window, and buried in a manure pile? And why does his body have a bullet hole in it?

So many lovers of the series begged me for 'just one more' that I decided to oblige. I will be releasing a Christmas book in late 2022. It will take place ten years later. Readers wanted to know where BJ and Jenny's future would take them so you'll get to find out. The gang is back and Dee and the pastor wreak havoc again.

Readers: Please read the first two books in the series, The Silver Spurs Home for Aging Cowgirls and Bandits, Broads, & Dirty Dawgs, as this really is a wrap-up novel to the trilogy regarding what happened to Cade. No harm came to any old ladies or old men in the writing of this series.

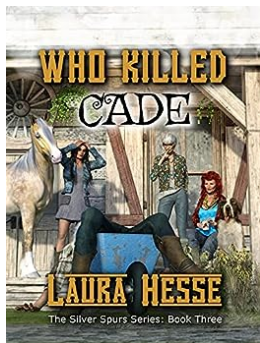

Here is what people are saying about the books:

“Good fun for any Cowgirl. Would love to watch the movie too. Could not put it down once it took speed.” Amazon Review - The Silver Spurs Home for Aging Cowgirls.

“What a wonderful way to spend an evening!!! This book was so fun and wow, what a crazy bunch of Old ladies!! I loved it as I'm almost there myself. I loved every character even the bad guys. There's so much living, laughing, and loving left in us as we age!!! And oh the stories we can tell!!!! Thank you for such a delightful book!" Amazon Review.- The Silver Spurs Home for Aging Cowgirls

"Great read! Can't wait for the next episode of this story. Funny and thought provoking experience." Amazon Review - Bandits, Broads & Dirty Dawgs
