Will Alice find the remedy for loneliness that haunts her in her deepest, darkest hour?

A heart-warming military love story of honor, forgiveness, and hope.

Things are not going very well for nineteen-year-old marine brat, Alice Tanner. She is four months pregnant, suffering from severe morning sickness, and living on base alone.

Though Aly is surrounded by friends and family, she feels isolated and is beginning to have doubts about her future.

Her boyfriend, Sgt. Ryan Stockwell, is deployed, and he is not due back for another three months.

If that was not bad enough, she has been having bad dreams lately and fears for his safety when she does not hear from him.

She shares her worries and bares her soul to those around her but finds little comfort in their words.

Do she and Ryan love each other enough to live by the Marine creed Aly was raised to respect - Semper Fidelis? Always faithful, always loyal, is a tall order when surrounded by so much uncertainty.

Aly's hopes for a happy reunion are shattered when she gets word Ryan is MIA. Can their families provide the support she needs, or will she find solace in the arms of a stranger?

Standalone YA romantic suspense, guaranteed HEA, no cheating.
