Sarah Lawson has given up making Christmas wishes for herself. When her parents died in an accident she had to push all her dreams of a family and horses aside. Her only goal this holiday season is to find a permanent place for her baby sister Amy. Their latest foster home has everything Sarah could hope for; a farm in the country, a nice foster-mom, and the kind of stability that creative, scatter-brained Amy needs. The only problem; it's temporary.

When imaginative Amy finds a lost horse she's convinced is a unicorn, Sarah is dragged on an adventure she'll never forget.

This could be the Christmas that changes everything. But is Sarah ready to take a leap of faith?
