A young woman with adventure on her mind...A rancher who cannot see the good from the bad...A town full of mean, bigoted men...

Orphan Jessica 'Jess' Harlow grew up in the care of her uncle, Luke, a cowboy on a West Virginian ranch. As soon as Jess was able to walk, Luke set her up in a saddle, her determination and natural flair making her a horse wrangler to rival any man.

Despite the efforts of housekeeper, Esme Cooper, to turn her into a lady, Jess prefers to stay in trousers and mud-caked boots.

With her adventurous spirit, Jess longs to know a world beyond the ranch. Answering an advertisement for a wrangler from Bart Ryder a rancher based in Wolf Creek, Montana, she travels west in the hopes of employment and a new and exciting life.

Can Jess find all she desires in the wilds of Montana and in the process find the man of her dreams?

Or, will she find that the west is not open to a woman trying her luck at what is seen as a man's job?
