1. Sergeant First Class Paul R. Smith

Sergeant First Class Paul R. Smith, a United States Army soldier, was awarded the Medal of Honor posthumously for his extraordinary actions during the Battle of Baghdad in 2003. As his outnumbered unit faced a fierce enemy attack, Smith manned a .50 caliber machine gun atop a damaged tank and repelled the assault, saving countless lives of his comrades.

2. Corporal Kyle Carpenter

Corporal Kyle Carpenter, a Marine Corps veteran, received the Medal of Honor for his incredible bravery in Afghanistan. In 2010, while standing guard on a rooftop, Carpenter heroically tackled a grenade to shield his fellow Marine from the explosion. Miraculously surviving the blast, Carpenter's inspiring story serves as a testament to the unbreakable bond of brotherhood.

3. Master Sergeant Roy P. Benavidez

Master Sergeant Roy P. Benavidez, an Army Special Forces soldier, exemplified unwavering bravery during his service in the Vietnam War. Despite sustaining multiple gunshot wounds, Benavidez courageously rescued fellow soldiers, relying on sheer determination and grit. His selflessness and dedication earned him the Medal of Honor, saving lives against all odds.

This first oral history of living Medal of Honor winners evokes Flags of Our Fathers with stirring accounts of patriotic valor.

This New York Times best-selling account of battlefield courage celebrates the larger-than-life sacrifices of those awarded the nation's highest honor for valor in combat. Exclusive interviews with these twenty-four men—firsthand accounts of battlefield sacrifice from the greatest generation to Vietnam, along with before-and-after stories—form the core of this classic work. The recipients, as portrayed here, represent a cross-section as diverse as America itself—officers and enlisted men; African Americans, Hispanics, and Caucasians; men who went on to become famous (Daniel Inouye, James Stockdale, Bob Kerrey) and others who returned proudly to small towns. Beyond Glory, in the voices of these heroes, is a testament to the courage of the American nation.
