Meet Alex Gold, the shining star of the stage...until high school. This year, Alex has a new role to play and a front-row seat to a shadowy mystery.

At first, nothing seems wrong—just a freshman who's doubting his talents and alienating all his closest friends in the process. But soon, the spring musical cast starts discovering their props stolen and destroyed, and Alex is a prime suspect. His mission? Paint himself clear of any crimes by finding the true villain, and earn back the respect of his theater mates. But before long, Alex finds a much more troubling situation than he expected. It's never clear if he can trust anyone, even himself. And only when a scheming mastermind vows to reduce their musical to dust, does Alex truly start to understand the ties that bind him to all his friends. There's only one way out: to reclaim his inner strength and learn to shine again, even when the spotlights are gone.

Whole Lotta Drama is an emotional thrill ride that's just waiting to be explored. Its beautiful everyday moments flourish just like its grand displays of good and evil. The narrator, Alex Gold, lends his pensive and honest voice to accent the ever-escalating mystery. And even if you've never been a theater kid, you'll find somebody to relate to within these pages. You'll find something that will delight you, render you speechless, or leave you biting your nails...and, by and large, you'll have a good time. Happy reading!
